

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION

Wood-Destroying Insect Inspection Training (Category 12)

Wed. October 5, 2016 • 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. with a continental breakfast served.

- ✓ Are you a home inspector or a pesticide applicator?
- ✓ Do you want state certification to conduct wood-destroying insect inspections for real estate transactions?

This class is for you!

Location: Ohio Dept. of Agriculture, 8995 E. Main Street, Reynoldsburg, OH 43068

Cost: (Includes training, continental breakfast, and box lunch.)

$90 pre-registration

$100 on-site registration (Box lunch not guaranteed & no on-site registration for recertification credit)

Training Conducted By:

Pesticide Safety Education Program, Ohio State University Extension and Ohio Department of Agriculture, Pesticide and Fertilizer Section

This Wood-Destroying Insect Inspection Class will:

- ✓ Meet the mandatory training required for a Wood-Destroying Insect inspection license from the State of Ohio for houses and buildings that are being bought or sold.
- ✓ Prepare participants to take the Category 12 exam (Wood-Destroying Insect Inspection) required for the state license.
- ✓ Review and explain the documents and records required by the State of Ohio.
- ✓ Review the biology and life cycles of termites and other wood-destroying insects.

Special Notes: There is NO direct supervision in the Wood-Destroying Insect inspection category. All people performing inspections MUST be licensed. This mandatory Wood-Destroying Insect Inspection class will not prepare attendees for the core exam.

Recertification credit: This training is also available to licensed applicators with Category 12 on their license if space is available. They will receive a total of five hours of recertification credit for core, category 10b (termite) and category 12 (WDI). Registration for recertification is limited and preference is given to those attending for initial training. There is no on-site registration for recertification credit.
